Tsunami film di Giuseppe Aquino

We are pleased to inform you that your film has been short listed to be screened during the Marbella International Film Festival.

Over 500 films from 52 countries are already submitted for the preliminary stage of this section of the festival, and while the submission lines are still open and judging process is still underway, we are preparing the preliminary short list of the films from the ones already submitted.

These films are presenting some of the best independent productions, by talented film makers from all over the world. Judges had some very difficult decisions to make while reducing the number of such high calibre applicants to limited number to be awarded the screening status at the festival.

So you must feel very proud, that your work has been recognised among the very best to appear section of this prestigious international film festival, we thus, congratulate you for your efforts, and wish you success.

All films being screened will be awarded a certificate of participation, the details of film and its credits would appear on the publicity materials of the festival.

To take the next step, we are required to confirm the availability of your film for screening, to allow our programming schedule for screening at the festival. However, we need more than just your confirmation, we need your commitment that you would be promoting your film prior and during the festival, should it be approved for screening as well as great opportunity to promote their works.

Indeed it is the aim of the festival to provide marketing and P.R opportunities for the short film makers whose work are to be screened at the festival, thus finalists are required to work closely with the festival to promote their films.

We are therefore writing to ask if you wish your film to be included in our screening program, should you wish to proceed with this, we need your undertaking that you will be commitment to promote your film prior and during the festival as part of the requirement of this event.

This would involve your direct participation on generating interest for your film to be screened at Marbella, especially considering that the audiences vote is a major part of this competition.

You would be required to promote your film through all means, be it digital, print, direct or in direct networking, and attracting audiences and media to your screening.

Our P.R team will offer you advice on best ways for such promotion, however you would be required to attend the festival and carry out your own marketing activates during the festival.

To this end, could you kindly confirm by return email if you wish to allow your film to move to the next stage, if so, please complete the attached release and accreditation forms, and return to us as an attachment to the same email.

We shall look forward to hear from you.

Kindest regards

Mac Chakaveh

Festival Director.
